

Monday, May 13:

Renaissance Facebook Set-Up Directions:

1. Log on to Edmodo
2. Go to Account, then settings
3. Change your first name to your historical individual's full name, then a comma, followed by your first name *Please watch spelling and correct capitalization
Ex: Leonardo da Vinci, Sue
4. Your last name should stay your own last name.
5. Under settings, as you do your research, you should also find a new avatar for your historical individual – it needs to be of that person or something that they accomplished (of course appropriate!) Remember when you find an image, save it on your z drive and then upload it under the account/ settings tab.

Research Directions:

1. On the sheet provided (or notebook paper, set up the same as the sheet), take notes about your individual.
2. PHRASES
3. OWN WORDS
4. BULLETS
5. Keep track of the URLS you use on a Word Document that your keep saved on your Z drive.
6. Be selective about the websites you use. Do not use another student's project on the internet to do your research. If you're having trouble finding a reliable site, please let me know. There are some sites bookmarked for you in a folder in Edmodo.
7. When you have enough notes, write a paragraph (from your individual's perspective) introducing yourself to the group. Tell who you are, where you are from, when you lived (and died...I know this is tricky as you are writing from the individual's perspective, but it's a necessary piece of information, so be creative and include it), and what you were known for. 4-5 sentences. Type on the same word document where you've been keeping track of your websites.

What should I have accomplished today?

- I changed my name correctly on my Edmodo account
- I changed my avatar appropriately on Edmodo.
- I researched my individual, with correct format, on the sheet/paper provided.
- I kept track of websites I used to research on a word document, which is saved on my z drive.
- I wrote a 4-5 sentence introduction of my individual, as if I were that individual, on my word document.
